

Hamlin Township, Mason County, MI Job Posting: Attorney

Hamlin Township, Mason County, MI is seeking to retain an attorney for the township.

General Summary

The township board authority to hire an attorney is optional. MCL 41.187 states: "The township board of a township may employ an attorney to represent the township in civil matters and to prosecute violation of township ordinances. In all ordinance violations prosecutions, the township attorney countersigns the certificates of jurors and witnesses in the same manner as the prosecuting attorney of the county."

In ordinance violation matters, the township attorney prepares the complain and warrant for arrest and prosecutes the matter in district court where the offense is a misdemeanor.
